

Library System Conversion Schedule Announcement

Important Announcement: Embracing a New Era of Library Services Across the Institution

The current library system has served our institution faithfully for over 20 years. However, as information technology evolves and research demands grow more diverse and immediate, the need for a modern, responsive solution has become clear.

To enhance service quality, strengthen information security, and better integrate physical and electronic resources, libraries across our institution will transition to a next-generation, cloud-based library system. This upgrade introduces a new information organization model, streamlines workflows, and elevates the user experience.

We recognize that such a system-wide change is a significant undertaking—it involves not only technical upgrades, but also adjustments to long-standing service processes. We kindly ask for your understanding and cooperation as we embark on this important transformation.

System Migration Timeline & Key Reminders

◆ Starting June 14, 2025 (Saturday):

1. Borrowing history will not be transferred to the new system. Please save a copy for your records.
2. Reservation queues will not be carried over. If your reserved item has not been picked up before the transition, please re-submit your request afterward.
3. Loan services for newly acquired items will be suspended temporarily. Items currently on shelves remain available for borrowing.

◆ July 1, 2025 (Tuesday):

- Suspend online reservation and renewal services.

◆ August 1, 2025 (Friday) at 6:00 PM:

1. The library catalog will be available in search-only mode. All borrowing and returning functions will be suspended.
2. Returned items during this period will be manually recorded at the circulation desk and updated in the new system once live.

 Friendly Reminder:

For your convenience, due dates for items borrowed between July 1 and August 31, 2025, will be extended to October 31, 2025.

We understand that this transition may cause temporary disruptions, and we sincerely appreciate your patience and support. We will work with you to move towards a new era of library services across the institute.

Thank you!
